If the Supplier fails to fulfil its obligation to provide all information proving quality compliance and relating to the progress of the Purchase Order, resulting in the need for verifications, checks and/or monitoring in addition to those initially provided for under the Purchase Order, the Buyer reserves the right to invoice the additional verifications, checks and/or monitoring in the form of a lump sum of two thousand Euros (€2000) per inspection, verification, checks and/or monitoring, in addition to travel expenses for the inspectors. Verifications, controls, monitoring, inspections and quality audits carried out by the Buyer and/or its Customer(s) and/or their representatives and/or the safety authorities and/or certified bodies shall in no way release the Supplier from its contractual obligations or decrease its liability for the Purchase Order.

The Supplier undertakes to include provisions of this Clause in the subcontracting agreement to ensure that the corresponding obligations apply to any subcontractors.

6.3. Time Schedule Management

The Supplier is responsible for complying with the deadlines and shall ensure that they are met in accordance with the requirements of the Purchase Order. 10.2. Liquidated damages for technical performance

Where applicable, the Supplier is liable for liquidated damages with respect to technical performance as specified in the Purchase Order.

Such liquidated damages shall apply automatically and without prior notice and constitute a discharge, except in case of a grave error and/or willful misconduct. Payment of such liquidated damages shall in no way release the Supplier from performing its contractual obligations. These liquidated damages can in no way be construed as a waiver by the Buyer of its right to terminate the Purchase Order pursuant to Clause 27 (Termination).

The Buyer sends the Supplier documentary evidence of the liquidated damages. The Supplier has fifteen (15) Days from receipt of notice thereof to formulate its substantiated observations. If the Supplier does not make any substantiated observations or in the event of agreement within this fifteen (15) Day period, the liquidated damages shall be deemed certain, liquid and payable. If the Supplier makes observations within this fifteen (15) Day period, the Parties shall meet and agree on the amount of the liquidated damages. 11.2. Except where otherwise stipulated in the Purchase Order, payments are made by bank transfer. Any failure to pay by the due date not attributable to the Supplier's total or partial failure to perform its obligations or to the Buyer's implementation of the offsetting mechanism shall incur late payment and the Buyer will pay late payment interest at three (3) times the French legal interest rate per calendar day applied to the unpaid amount. The late payment interest shall apply to the invoices total exclusive of tax. The late payment interest is charged the day immediately after the due date until the date of full payment.

The Buyer will also be charged a set fee for recovery costs, the amount of which is set by Decree.

11.3. Prior to any assignment (notably in the context of factoring, delegation or subrogation) of its debts in respect of the Purchase Order, the Supplier must inform the Buyer's registered office and the Buyer's establishment that issued the Purchase Order. It shall quote such assignment on its invoices.

The Supplier shall request the new beneficiary creditor to personally send the Buyer notice of the debt assignment, regardless of the form and arrangements thereof, done according to the procedures prescribed by law. The Supplier irrevocably undertakes (in instances where it receives payment by mistake and irrespective of any exceptions it may invoke against the person, organization or credit institution benefitting from the receivables) to immediately and directly pay this third party the funds received, at its own expense, and discharge the Buyer of any liability in that respect. If this procedure is not followed, the Supplier is required to hold the Buyer harmless and indemnify it against any adverse consequences of any error from itself or the new beneficiary creditor.

CLAUSE 12. INVOICING

12.1. Invoices must be issued as one (1) copy in electronic format (PDF), on the dates given in the Purchase Order once their obligating events have effectively occurred. If the obligating event is deferred for reasons attributable to the Supplier, delayed payment shall not include any late payment interest.

12.2. Invoices shall comply with the instructions available on the website <https://www.jeumontelectric.com/espace-fournisseurs/>. The Supplier will be informed of any change in this regard.

12.3. The Buyer is entitled to refuse (and not take it into account in its accounting books) any invoice in breach of legal requirements, or non-compliant with the provisions of the Purchase Order. Any such invoices are deemed null and void. An incorrect invoice not returned by the Buyer shall not however be construed as the latter's acceptance thereof.

12.4. The Purchase Order does not give rise to payment of any advances or down payments.

CLAUSE 13. TIME SCHEDULE – DELIVERY

13.1. The time schedule or completion dates ("Schedules") for supply of the Goods and/or performance of the Services are defined in the Purchase Order. Time periods are always calculated including the starting and ending dates.

13.2. These time periods are deemed to take all the Supplier's obligations and constraints into account. The Acceptance of the Purchase Order implies for the Supplier an irrevocable commitment to Schedule or dates as set forth in the Purchase Order that, as such, represent one of the essential obligations of the Purchase Order.

Deliverables must be delivered by e-mail or another mode of transport meeting the conditions of the Purchase Order (in particular the markings and protection, Purchase Order number, name of the Buyer's technical supervisor, contents of the package, etc., stated in the Purchase Order if the package is not confidential). All deliveries must be accompanied by a delivery note referring to the Purchase Order. The delivery note shall be dated and signed by the Parties. Each of the Goods must be labelled with the reference of the Purchase Order concerned.

The signing of a delivery note by the Buyer only confirms material delivery of the Goods and Services. It can on no account be construed as recognition of compliance of the Goods and Services with the Purchase Order's specifications, the Buyer reserves the right to notify the Supplier within the legal time limit of any reservation, loss, damage or nonconformity of the Goods and Services observed at the time of unpacking or during subsequent controls.

13.3.2. The packing must be appropriate for the type of transport specified in the Purchase Order (in particular the markings and protection) and must ensure effective protection against any damage or loss, from the point of view of both handling and of safeguarding up to its place of delivery. The Supplier is inter alia responsible at its cost and risk for loading and carriage (including administrative formalities) of the Goods. Compensation for damage and/or loss due to defective, inadequate or un-adapted packing is entirely chargeable to the Supplier.

The packages must bear the Purchase Order reference clearly and legibly on each side and include all the markings stipulated in the Purchase Order, in particular: shipping date, sender's address and delivery recipient. The weight of each shipping unit and the location of the slinging must be stated on all heavy shipping units.

Returnable containers will be returned (barring an exceptional agreement) at the Supplier's expense. Packing lists sent by the Supplier must state:

- the date of shipment,
- the itemized bill of materials of the articles, with the number of shipping units, the gross and net weights,
- the reference of the parts and the corresponding drawings.

If shipment of some or all of the Goods is delayed at the request of the Buyer, the Supplier is required, under its responsibility, to warehouse them free of charge for three (3) months, and thereafter for a fee to be agreed by mutual consent of the Parties.

It is hereby agreed that the Supplier must insure the Goods against damage, including for the duration of the warehousing.

During performance of the Purchase Order, the Buyer may change the place of delivery stated in the Purchase Order, in which case the prices may be increased or decreased to reflect the effect of this change on the Supplier's costs.

13.4. Services - Deliverables

The Services must be performed and the Deliverables supplied within the time specified in the Purchase Order.

13.5. Delivery of the Goods and/or completion of the Services does not imply receipt or acceptance thereof. Partial or advance delivery of the Goods and/or Services (including Deliverables) is prohibited barring the prior consent written of the Buyer. If no such consent is forthcoming, the Goods and Services will be deemed not to have been delivered.

CLAUSE 14. ACCEPTANCE

14.1. The acceptance procedure consists of all the operations through which the Buyer checks the visual conformance of the Goods and/or Services to the terms of the Purchase Order.

14.2. Acceptance of Goods and/or Services with industrial commissioning

When a specific procedure is not included in the Purchase Order, on completion of installation Services and/or on completion of the supervision of the Goods installation, the Supplier shall notify the Buyer in writing seven (7) Days in advance that the Goods are ready for operation. A joint control of completion of the Goods and Services is conducted. The Goods and Services are put into operation for a period of thirty (30) Days. If a failure occurs during that period, the Supplier shall repair or replace the Goods and/or re-perform the Services at its own expense.

At the end of the aforesaid period of thirty (30) Days, subject to normal operation being noted for at least twenty (20) consecutive Days and acceptance of the related Deliverables, the Supplier will notify the Buyer in writing seven (7) Days in advance in order to carry out the necessary tests and check the conformity of the Goods, Services and/or related Deliverables and thereby proceed with Acceptance in the presence of both Parties. The Buyer shall issue the acceptance report, or a statement of non-conformity within a reasonable timeframe from when verifications have been completed.

14.3. Acceptance of Goods without industrial commissioning

In the absence of a specific procedure in the Purchase Order, the Buyer has a reasonable period of time, which cannot exceed thirty (30) Days from the delivery date of the Goods and all the related Deliverables to inspect and verify them and report any visible defect to the Supplier. The Buyer shall issue the acceptance report, or a statement of non-conformity within a reasonable timeframe from when verifications have been completed.

14.4. Acceptance of Services

In the absence of a specific procedure in the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall notify the Buyer of completion of the Services and where applicable will provide a completion report or study report. The Buyer has a reasonable period of time, which cannot exceed thirty (30) Days from the Supplier's delivery of complete performance of the Services, including the sending of the Deliverable(s), to report any visible defect to the Supplier. The Buyer shall issue the acceptance report, or a statement of non-conformity within a reasonable timeframe from when verifications have been completed.

14.5. Statement of non-conformity

If a statement of non-conformity of the Goods and/or Services is issued during the acceptance verifications, the Supplier undertakes to correct the non-conformities listed in the said statement within the deadline specified therein, or in absence of deadline, within seven (7) Days of notification thereof. All Goods and Services presenting a non-conformity are deemed not completed. No payments are due until the non-conformities have been corrected.

After correction of the non-conformities by the Supplier, a second acceptance procedure will be carried out to ascertain that the Goods and/or Services comply with the Purchase Order. If non-conformities are identified after the second acceptance procedure, the Buyer may refuse or reject the Goods and/or Services, as provided for in Clause 15 (Rejection of Goods and/or Services). Any and all costs in connection with the correction of the non-conformities of the Goods and/or Services shall be fully and exclusively borne by the Supplier, including costs and/or expenses incurred by the Buyer.

CLAUSE 15. REJECTION OF GOODS AND/OR SERVICES

15.1. If any non-conformities in the Goods and/or Services are noted after the second acceptance procedure as set out in Clause 14 (Acceptance) above, the Buyer may refuse or reject all or part thereof, without prejudice to any liquidated damages or compensation for damage it may claim. Moreover, any sums already paid by the Buyer for the said Goods and/or Services must be reimbursed immediately, without prejudice to termination of the Purchase Order for breach under the conditions of Clause 27.1 (Termination).

15.2. Any Goods and/or Services definitely refused or rejected must be taken back by the Supplier within eight (8) Days of receipt of the notice of refusal or rejection. If the Goods have not been recovered by the Supplier within the said period, the Buyer may, at the cost, expense and risk of the Supplier, (i) destroy the Goods, or (ii) return them to the Supplier, or (iii) place them in storage pending collection by the Supplier. All costs arising further to refusal or rejection of the Goods are fully and exclusively borne by the Supplier, including costs and/or expenses incurred by the Buyer.

CLAUSE 16. TRANSFER OF TITLE AND TRANSFER OF RISKS

16.1. Transfer of risk relating to the supply of Goods and/or performance of Services occurs upon signature by the Buyer of the acceptance certificate, subject to the provisions of Clause 18 (Intellectual Property). If the Buyer is forced to use the Goods and/or Services in the meantime, this cannot be construed as acceptance and/or transfer of risk of the said Goods and/or Services.

16.2. Transfer of title occurs along delivery of the Goods and performance of the Services performed. It is hereby agreed that transfer of title does not affect the Buyer's right to refuse the Goods and/or Services, in which case title thereof will revert to the Supplier.

16.3. Failing an acceptance procedure, transfer of title and risks occurs upon delivery of the Goods and Services. Such transfer does not legally or materially affect any obligation of the Supplier pursuant to the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 17. WARRANTY

17.1. Subject to the provisions of Clause 18 (Intellectual Property), the Goods are guaranteed free of any privilege, pledge and bond.

The Goods and/or Services must be performed according to the prevailing state-of-art and delivered in full and in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Order.

17.2. The Supplier warrants conformity of the Goods and/or Services during the period specified in the Purchase Order, or failing which for twenty-four (24) months from the date of acceptance of all the Goods and/or Services, as stipulated in Clause 14 (Acceptance).

17.3. As soon as a non-conformance or a defect is detected in the Goods and/or Services, the Buyer informs the Supplier thereof promptly and in writing, indicating the nature of the non-conformance or defect. Under the warranty obligation, the Supplier shall at its own costs, promptly, and however no later than upon the date stipulated by the Buyer, carry out any replacement, repair, correction, modification or adjustment required to achieve or maintain the characteristics, performances and results guaranteed to the Buyer.

Such measures may, at the Buyer's choice, be carried out at the Buyer's site, or on the Site of its Customer (in France or elsewhere), or at the Supplier's site. If it appears necessary to carry out such measures other than on the Site or the Buyer's site, then the repatriation of the Goods and their return to the Site or the Buyer's site (as well as the risks attached thereof) after backfitting shall be fully borne by the Supplier. The Buyer reserves the right to choose the appropriate transportation means with respect to its own constraints.

All costs and damage arising out of or in connection with the non-conformance of the Goods and/or Services shall be fully and exclusively borne by the Supplier. After being served formal notice, if the Supplier refuses to bring the Goods into compliance or is unable to meet the requirements and demands stated above, the Buyer shall be entitled to perform or have a third party perform, forthwith and without any other formalities, at the Supplier's cost and risks. In such case, the Supplier shall continue to warrant the Goods and/or Services as provided for in the Purchase Order.

When a replacement, repair, corrections or modifications of all or part of the Goods and/or Services has been performed, the Goods and/or Services affected by the defect shall be re-warranted under the same conditions as those set out in the present General Terms and/or the Purchase Order, for an additional period equal to the original warranty period, as from the date of acceptance of the replaced, corrected, repaired or modified Goods and/or Services.

17.4. Beyond the aforementioned warranties, the Supplier shall remain liable for any latent defect as stipulated in Articles 1641 et seq. of the French Civil Code, and by express agreement of the Parties, for any supply of Goods pursuant to the Purchase Order, whether or not Services are included in the Purchase Order.

17.5. None of the above provisions shall be construed as restricting any of the Buyer's (or, as further owner of the Goods and/or Services, its Customer's) rights and remedies at law.

17.6. In the event of a latent defect and/or repeated non-conformity of Goods and/or Services, the Parties shall meet to agree on solutions to implement in order to meet the requirements of the Purchase Order, or failing which the arrangements for total or partial cancellation thereof.

CLAUSE 18. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

18.1. Background Knowledge

18.1.1. Buyer's Background Knowledge

The Buyer remains the exclusive owner of the intellectual property rights of its Background Knowledge. For the purposes of this Clause, the Customer's input data and/or information disclosed to the Supplier for the purpose of the performance of the Purchase Order shall be considered as Buyer's Background Knowledge.

For the sole purpose of performance of the Purchase Order, the Buyer grants to the Supplier the right to use its Background Knowledge, with the right to sublicense such Background Knowledge to authorized subcontractors, as strictly necessary to perform the subcontract agreement. The Supplier must inform the Buyer before transmitting the Buyer's Background Knowledge to a subcontractor.

The Supplier is required not to infringe the Buyer's Background Knowledge by refraining it from being used, copied or reproduced in full or in part, by any means and in any form, for purposes other than those strictly necessary to perform the Purchase Order and only throughout the term of the Purchase Order. Accordingly, the Supplier is prohibited from using the Buyer's Background Knowledge from the date of expiry or termination of the Purchase Order, and shall be liable for compliance with this Clause by any subcontractors.

18.1.2. Supplier's Background Knowledge

The Supplier shall notify the Buyer of any Background Knowledge held by the Supplier and which is necessary to use the Results upon conclusion of the Purchase Order at the latest.

Upon accepting the Purchase Order, the Supplier grants to the Buyer and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, fully-paid up, perpetual, worldwide license to use Supplier's Background Knowledge to the extent of using the Results for both internal and business purposes, in accordance with the terms of Clause 18.2. When relating to know-how, such license shall last until such know-how becomes public. The Buyer shall be entitled to grant sublicenses and/or to assign this Background Knowledge right to use to whomever it may deem fit, including the Buyer's Affiliates.

In this respect, the Supplier grants the Buyer and its Affiliates the right to disclose, register, reproduce, use, translate, adapt, modify and communicate its Background Knowledge as needed by the Buyer and its Affiliates to use the Results, with a right to sublicense it to any third parties.

The financial consideration for this license is lump sum and included in the price of the Purchase Order.

18.2. Results

18.2.1. Principle

Unless stipulated otherwise in the Purchase Order, the Supplier assigns all the Results and intellectual property rights attached thereto, on an exclusive basis to the Buyer, the ownership and title being transferred along completion.

The Supplier waives all and any rights whatsoever it may claim on the Results and warrants that it has procured the same waiver from its personnel, subcontractors and their personnel. The Results constitute Confidential Information belonging to the Buyer and must be treated as such by the Supplier. The price of the Purchase Order includes the lump sum remuneration of the Supplier of the above-mentioned assignment of the Results to the Buyer as well as the related intellectual property rights attached thereto, as specified in this Clause.

The Buyer shall therefore be free to use the Results as it wishes, and to decide the appropriateness and choice of any legal protection measures to be implemented in connection with the said Results.

The Supplier shall not restrain or otherwise hinder the use of the Results by the Buyer, in particular through an intellectual property right.

18.2.2. Copyright - Software

If the Results include, in full or in part, creations which can be protected by copyright, then all such creations, including but not limited to computer developments, such as software, databases, the design of the "look and feel" of the software screens created in the course of the performance of the Purchase Order (hereinafter referred to as "Creations"), shall be the exclusive property of the Buyer, the ownership and title being transferred along completion.

Therefore, the Supplier, acknowledging being author of the Creations, or at least the assignee of the copyright over such Creations, exclusively assigns to the Buyer, all intellectual property rights attached to the Creations, with the exception of the Supplier's moral right, whatever is the nature of the considered work, i.e., an individual work, a collaborative work (carried out by a member of the Supplier's personnel) or a collective work:

- a) The exclusive right to reproduce them without limitation as to number, digitize, duplicate, print, record in whole or in part of each of the Creations, for whatever reason and in any manner, specifically by any technical processes, on any media, known or unknown on the date of the Purchase Order, in any formats; this right to reproduce includes a permanent or temporary right to reproduce any software in full or in part, by any means and in any form, and in particular by any loading, display, performance, transfer or storage operation;
- b) The right to translate which includes the right to produce any version of all or part of each of the Creations in French and any foreign language, as well as in any computer language;
- c) The right to adapt, arrange, modify, correct errors, and the right for the Buyer to alter or have any third party alter each Creation in full or in part whether in writing, orally, through telematics or digital, etc. form, and for any kind of use;
- d) The right to publish, broadcast, edit and re-edit without any limitation on the number of editions. Such rights shall include reprographic rights and all derivative rights thereof, to sell, grant or assign the rights of use, the right to rent and lend copies of each of the Creations in its original version or in any adapted, arranged, modified, corrected, converted or translated version, either free of charge or against payment;
- e) The right to represent, exhibit, display, broadcast and use all or part of each of the Creations, in its original version or in any adapted, arranged, modified, corrected, converted or translated version, through any means of communication to the public known to this day and in particular by public recital, television broadcasting, including radio broadcasting, satellite transmission, active or passive initial or secondary cable distribution, public projection, disclosure/transmission in a public place, digital disclosure/transmission online or over media, by public presentation and any other means;
- f) The right to use, monitor and maintain the Creations;
- g) The right to integrate all or part of the Creations with or without modification;
- h) The right to decompile the Creations, especially software.

The Buyer shall be entitled to a worldwide use of the aforementioned rights for commercial or non-commercial purposes (including for research purposes) for its own activities and those of its Affiliates and for as long as the legal protection of said rights shall last (and without any limitation of any kind regarding edition, broadcasting, rerun or use).

The Supplier transfers to the Buyer all property rights over the media for the Creations, allowing their copy in number and their adaptation. For software Creations, the assignment shall apply to both the object code and the source code version and will include the preparatory design material and associated documentation enabling a person skilled in the art to understand the source codes. The Supplier must provide a copy of all these media forthwith to the Buyer on completion of the Purchase Order, or prior to this on request by the Buyer.

The Buyer has the right to retrocede all or part of such acquired intellectual property rights to any third parties of its choice, by any means, especially by means of assignment, concession or any other legal means. The payment due for the assignment of intellectual property rights as defined in this Clause is expressly included in the agreed price of the Purchase Order.

18.2.3. Special case of employees

The Supplier shall be responsible for the execution by its employees and its subcontractors' employees of any necessary formalities (such as signing mandates, transfer deeds or declarations) that enable the transfer of the Results to the Buyer as defined in Clauses 18.2.1 and 18.2.2 and their protection by the Buyer.

18.3. Guarantees

The Supplier warrants that it is the owner or assignee of all the intellectual property rights attached to the Results and to any Background Knowledge licensed to the Buyer under Clause 18.1.2 in particular the copyright of the various executants of the Results whether these are its employees or third parties such as any subcontractors, and that it may therefore freely assign such within the conditions stipulated in Clauses 18.2.1 and 18.2.2.

The Supplier warrants the Buyer that the Results do not infringe any pre-existing intellectual property rights owned by any third party, any subcontractors, or those of an employee of the Supplier or any of its subcontractors.

Accordingly, the Supplier shall indemnify the Buyer against all costs and damages claimed against the Buyer based on the ownership and/or exploitation of any intellectual property right or personality or image right associated with the Results, which is brought by any third party or its employees or those of its authorized subcontractors and shall indemnify the Buyer for any costs, indemnities, legal fees and expenses which may be incurred or to which the Buyer may be held liable as a result of such claim or action. The Supplier shall provide full assistance to the Buyer, should such claim be filed against the latter.

Furthermore, should such a claim or action succeed the Supplier shall be responsible for obtaining from the third party or (if applicable) the Supplier's employees or the employees of its authorized subcontractors, the assignment, concession or sub-concession of the disputed intellectual property right, or the authorization associated with the exploitation of the personality or image rights belonging to the third party or the employee and to pay the required consideration, so as to enable the Purchase Order to be complied with and the peaceful use of the Results by the Buyer. In the absence of which, and subject to the Buyer's consent, Supplier shall modify the Results. If this solution is not feasible, the Buyer will be entitled to terminate the Purchase Order forthwith, without prejudice to any the damages it may claim from the Buyer.

The Supplier shall grant the same warranties as those stated above in respect of any Background Knowledge granted under license to the Buyer in the terms of Clause 18.1.2.

CLAUSE 19. CONFIDENTIALITY

19.1. The Supplier undertakes at all times that it will keep confidential the Confidential Information that it receives from the Buyer. The use of Confidential Information by the party receiving it (the "Recipient") is strictly limited to the performance of the Purchase Order. Accordingly, the Recipient undertakes at all times to communicate Confidential Information only to its employees on a strict need-to-know basis. The Recipient undertakes to take all reasonable measures, which are at a minimum as protective as those it takes for the protection of its own Confidential Information, so as to prevent and protect against theft and against the unauthorized use, disclosure and/or reproduction of Confidential Information.

19.2. The Recipient undertakes not to communicate Confidential Information directly or indirectly to a third party, except to subcontractors authorized under Clause 24.2 (Assignment - Subcontracting) on a strict need-to-know basis and only to the extent necessary for the performance of the Purchase Order, to the Customer and to the sworn professional advisors of the Recipient on a need-to-know basis and provided that they have no conflict of interests with respect to the party disclosing the Confidential Information (the "Disclosing Party").

19.3. Moreover, upon the Buyer's request or at the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order, whatever the cause, the Supplier undertakes to return to the Buyer and/or destroy, and certify in writing the destruction of, any Confidential Information in any form whatsoever. The Supplier may retain in its automatic backup systems any Confidential Information that cannot reasonably be destroyed, provided however that such information shall not be accessible or used by the Supplier and that such data shall be destroyed in accordance with the Supplier's policy and practices related to the destruction of documents.

19.4. The Recipient shall ensure that its personnel and third parties identified in Clause 19.2 comply with the confidentiality obligations set out in this Clause.

19.5. In any event, the provisions in this Clause cannot restrict or infringe in any way the property rights and rights of use of the Parties.

19.6. These confidentiality obligations shall survive after expiry or termination of the Purchase Order for any cause whatsoever, as long as the Confidential Information does not enter the public domain, other than as a result of any act or omission of the Recipient.

CLAUSE 20. FORCE MAJEURE

Force majeure event shall mean any unforeseeable event beyond the control of the Party invoking it that is unavoidable and that prevents said Party from performing its obligations. When a force majeure event arises, the Party invoking it shall take the appropriate measures to mitigate its effects and notify the other Party by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, setting out the circumstances such Party is facing, the foreseeable consequences including but not limited to on due performance of the Purchase Order and the first actions taken, it being understood that it shall use its best efforts to mitigate said consequences and find the most appropriate solutions to solve the problems resulting therefrom. The Purchase Order's completion deadline shall be extended for a duration equal to the duration of the force majeure event. The Party invoking a duly notified force majeure event shall not be held liable for failing to meet, or only partially meeting, the obligations affected by the force majeure event for as long as it lasts. Said Party remains bound by any obligations not affected by the force majeure event. If no agreement can be reached concerning the measures to take, and if the force majeure event lasts for more than 60 (sixty) Days from notification thereof, the Buyer may terminate all or part of the Purchase Order under the terms and conditions of Clause 27.2 a) (Termination), without any indemnification being due to the Supplier.

CLAUSE 21. LIABILITY – INSURANCE

21.1. The Supplier is liable for loss and/or damage of any kind caused by the Supplier or its subcontractors and suppliers to the Buyer, up to an overall ceiling of 100% of the price of the Purchase Order. However, this ceiling does not apply to bodily injury and losses and damages resulting from non-compliance with confidentiality and/or intellectual property provisions and/or gross negligence and/or willful misconduct.

The Buyer shall not be liable for any indirect and/or consequential damage (such as, but not limited to loss of profit, loss of production, loss of opportunity, shortfall, damage to the corporate image or brand), whatever the time, the origin and the cause of such damage or loss suffered by the Supplier, it being understood that losses and damage resulting from non-compliance with confidentiality and/or intellectual property provisions shall under no circumstances be considered as indirect or consequential damage.

21.2. The Supplier shall subscribe and maintain in effect the necessary insurance policies for a sufficient amount, in order to cover any risk and liability arising out of or in connection with the performance of the Purchase Order, in particular an insurance policy covering damage caused to the Buyer and to other third parties. Said insurance policies shall be taken out with well-known creditworthy insurance companies.

Prior to conclusion of the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall provide insurance certificates issued by its insurer(s) within the past six (6) months, stating the number and effective date of the insurance contract, the coverages granted, their amounts and deductibles, the sub-limits, the activities, the nature of the works or tasks covered, and the Supplier shall provide evidence that it has duly paid all the related premiums. For a multiyear insurance contract, the Supplier shall provide the aforesaid certificate(s) every year, on the due date of the insurance policy. However, subscription to said insurance policies does not in any way relieve the Supplier from its obligations and liabilities arising out of or in connection with the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 22. AUDIT

The Buyer may at any time carry out on its own behalf and at its own expense or on behalf of its Customer subject to special conditions as they may be agreed, an audit, notably of the resources and tools allocated by the Supplier to perform the Purchase Order. Such an audit or audits may focus, for instance, on the compliance of the Supplier and its subcontractors and suppliers with the contractual obligations concerning such scopes as quality (in the usual frame of supplier assessment, following a particular event as well as during the performance of the Purchase Order), company social responsibility or cybersecurity.

Such an audit or audits may, at the Buyer's option, be carried out either by the Buyer's internal audit structure or by an external firm which shall be subject to professional secrecy.

The Buyer shall notify the Supplier of its intent to carry out an audit, with at least a fourteen (14) Days' advance notice in writing. In any event, the Buyer shall inform the Supplier of the identity of the selected external audit firm.

The Supplier may refuse the audit notifying the Buyer thereof within seven (7) Days following receipt of the notification provided by the latter, when the audit is to be carried out by an external firm which is a competitor of the Supplier.

In that case, after consultation with the Supplier, the Buyer will notify the latter of the name of a new audit firm. If the Parties cannot agree on the proposed new audit firm, the Buyer may terminate the Purchase Order for default of the Supplier pursuant to Clause 27.1 (Termination) without prejudice to any claims for damages.

With regard to this audit, the Supplier undertakes to grant the auditors free access to its Site, cooperate fully with them and provide them with all the necessary information. The Supplier shall grant the designated auditors access to all its facilities, information and documents required for the proper conduct of the audit.

A copy or extract of the audit report will be given free of charge by the Buyer to the Supplier at the latter's request. It will be examined during a meeting of the Parties' main points of contact.

Should the audit highlight any non-compliance by the Supplier with its obligations, the latter shall implement the necessary remedial measures at its own expense forthwith.

If the Supplier fails to comply with its obligations stipulated in Clauses 30 (Export control and international sanctions), 34 (Combating corruption and influence peddling), 35 (Combating fraud) and Corporate Social Responsibility Commitments applicable to the Suppliers, the Buyer reserves the right to carry out additional audits, the cost of which shall be borne by the Supplier, in the form of a lump sum of three thousand Euros (EUR 3.000) per audit, in addition to the auditors' travel expenses. Said lump sum and travel expenses shall be the object of a dedicated invoice by the Buyer.

The implementation or non-implementation of the audit procedure will not release the Supplier in any way from complying with its contractual obligations.

CLAUSE 23. FOLLOW-UP – RETURN OF EXPERIENCE

23.1. For Purchase Orders with a duration of more than one (1) year, the Supplier undertakes to be part of a continuous improvement and competitiveness approach with the Buyer particularly where quality, occupational health and safety, deadlines (supply, manufacture, delivery, etc.), prices, innovation and corporate social responsibility are concerned. The Purchase Order will specify the conditions for implementing this plan.

23.2. 24.1. The Purchase Order is concluded by the Buyer in consideration of the Supplier's entity (intuitu personae). Accordingly, the Supplier shall personally fulfil its contractual obligations. Therefore, it may not transfer or assign the Purchase Order or any part thereof to a third party without the prior written consent of the Buyer. Should the Supplier breach such provision, the Buyer may terminate the Purchase Order forthwith as per Clause 27.1 (Termination).

In the event of transfer of the Purchase Order through a merger, demerger or spin-off, and prior to any such operation, the Supplier shall notify the Buyer, who shall be entitled to decide to terminate the Purchase Order. If the Buyer decides not to terminate the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall personally stand surety for the proper performance of the Purchase Order. When the Buyer agrees to such transfer or assignment of the Purchase Order, an amendment to the Purchase Order shall be issued.

Notwithstanding any Clause to the contrary, a direct or indirect change of control of the Supplier within the meaning of Article L. 233-3 of the French Commercial Code shall, prior to performance of the operation, be notified to the Buyer, who may decide to terminate the Purchase Order.

24.2. The Supplier may not subcontract all or part of the Purchase Order without the Buyer's prior written consent. If subcontracting is allowed by the Buyer, the Supplier shall remain fully liable for the proper performance of the Purchase Order.

24.3. The Buyer may assign all or part of the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 25. SUSPENSION OF THE ORDER

25.1. The Buyer may for its convenience decide to suspend the performance of all or part of the Purchase Order by sending the Supplier written notice thereof taking effect ten (10) Days after receipt thereof by the Supplier. In the event that part of the Services and/or Goods have already been performed, the Supplier undertakes to keep such part of the Services and/or Goods and where appropriate store it at its cost and risk for a period not exceeding six (6) months. If the suspension lasts for more than six (6) months, the Parties shall consult each other to find a suitable solution or if applicable to decide to terminate the Purchase Order.

25.2. The Supplier must be given written notice of resumption of the performance of the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 26. ARCHIVING TECHNICAL DOCUMENTS

Notwithstanding the application of regulatory requirements and unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order, the Supplier undertake to archive, at its own expense, all documents, notably the reports, studies, plans, drawings, files, etc., on any medium whatsoever, relating to performance of the Purchase Order for a period of ten (10) years after the expiry date of the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 27. TERMINATION

27.1. In the event of a failure by the Supplier to perform any of its obligations of the Purchase Order, whether in whole or on part (i) the Buyer may suspend the payment of any amount due until the Supplier has remedied its failure and (ii) the Purchase Order may be terminated as of right by the Buyer through registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt if the Supplier has not remedied such failure within fifteen (15) Days of being served notice to remedy, without prejudice to liquidated damages for delay and any damages which the Buyer may claim to the Supplier as a compensation for loss suffered by the Buyer, as well as the reimbursement of any down payment or advance payment paid by the Buyer.

27.2. In the absence of any Supplier's failure, the Buyer is entitled to terminate the Purchase Order at any time, in whole or in part, subject to giving the Supplier fifteen (15) Days' notice thereof by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt in either of the two following cases (it is specified that as from receipt of the said letter, the Supplier shall not place any new purchase orders):

- a) in case of termination, non-renewal or suspension of the contract between the Buyer and its Customer. In such cases, the Supplier shall be entitled to payment for all the completed parts of the Purchase Order and the direct and irrevocably committed costs in connection with the Purchase Order at the date of termination, upon due substantiation of such costs, minus any down payments or advance payments already paid; or
- b) at the Buyer's discretion. In this case, the Supplier will be paid for the elements and costs provided for in Clause 27.2 (a) above and under the same conditions, and shall, in full and final settlement, be entitled to damages for a maximum amount of five per cent (5%) of the price of the remaining part of the Purchase Order to be performed.

27.3. In any event, in either of the cases of termination referred to in Clause 27.2, the Supplier shall not be entitled to any other indemnification than the one specifically stipulated therein.

CLAUSE 28. REVERSIBILITY

28.1. In the event of termination of the Purchase Order for any reason whatsoever, the Supplier undertakes to ensure Reversibility thereof as specified hereafter, to enable the Buyer to resume (or have resumed) supply of the Goods and/or provision of the Services in the best possible conditions by any third party of its choice.

28.2. Subject to any special procedures stated in the Purchase Order, the Reversibility operations include among others:

The Supplier shall communicate all the information and characteristics required to resume the performance of the Purchase Order.

28.3. During implementation of Reversibility and up to the effective date of transfer of all the Goods and/or Services:
